Welcome to 2014

The Board of Directors wishes you all a safe, peaceful & Happy Christmas and a Wonderful New Year.

Preparing for the new season

The beginning of the season from February, leading up to the first roll of competitive play somewhere towards the end of April, is the most busy and pressing time of the year for the MBF board members.

Roster Forms have to be collected and worked on. Setting up the divisions reflecting last season's results have to be established. Sorting out whether teams can move to other days and if we have room for them. Accepting New Team registration. Last season we had another record sign up and we will probably better that in 2014. When all the teams are registered, we start the Scheduling. With 220 plus teams in various divisions and groups, scheduling court assignments for around 20 weeks becomes quite a time consuming process.

We then have to update emails for the MBF address book and this is why it is important for you to fill out the Roster Form legibly and preferably on your computer so we can have a printed copy and not hand written. We understand that not everyone will be able to do that and we thank those of you that are able to.

I would like to make a special request to the Capos and ask you to include all email addresses of your team mates so that as many people can be kept in touch, personally, with the Club, whether it is via the News Letter or by email for the special times EG, Rainouts or the Play Offs. All members can subscribe and your details are kept private within the Club.

Then we have the Hand Book to publish.

Next year as every year, there are seats available, coming up for election to the Martinez Bocce Federation Board of Directors. If you feel that you can be of assistance to the Club or that you have a special talent that can improve what we do and you wish to serve on the Board, please write in and I will pass your name forward for the ballot at the February 4th Registration meeting.

Senior League for 2014

For 2014 the Senior Thursday Morning League, will come under the umbrella of the Martinez Bocce Federation.

This has come about for several reasons.

It will now be run under the Rules of the MBF and registration will be held at the same time as the rest of the league, Tuesday, Feb 4th at the Moose Lodge.

See the NEW TEAM ROSTER form on page 5.

Remembering
Loved Ones and Friends

From time to time, members have asked me to include words of appreciation and memories of team members that passed and so from January we will be including your thoughts and memories of those that cannot be with us.
I have had some members saying, why didn't I mention their friend or relative in the News-Letter but of course, although I know many of you, I don't know what goes on in every team and my know knowledge of the MBF only goes back 8 years.

If you have someone special that you would like to have remembered send me some copy and add a photograph and I will include your thoughts.

So, hopefully with this new set up we can bring some joy and satisfaction to those who wish to have friends and loved ones remembered, both past and recent.

NOW THEN!!!

Here's a chance for you to voice your opinion. If you have any suggestions or comments as to how the Club can benefit from certain changes why don't you put your thoughts in writing and send them to me. I will circulate them to the board and they will discuss it at future meetings. You may even find your letter and suggestions in subsequent newsletters.

CCC Indoor Bocce

During the winter months I know that some of our members, who cannot wait until next spring to roll some balls, are playing in the Contra Costa County Indoor Bocce leagues in Antioch. Their season runs from late November until the end of March. During this time they will host several tournaments and these will be shown in the MBF calendar of events. If available, I will post fliers in the newsletter.
The first tournament will be held on December 14th and on January 18th they hold the "4th Annual Mari Grillo Memorial Tournament".
See flier on page 7.

The Board of Directors wishes you a Happy Christmas and a Wonderful New Year

Season's Greetings

The Board of Directors wishes you a Happy Christmas and a Wonderful New Year

The 2014 Bocce Season will soon be upon us

Please take note of the following date for registration,

Tuesday February 4th @ 6.00pm in the Martinez Moose Lodge

You will be notified by post if you are listed as the Capo of the 2013 team and will receive a roster form for your 2014 season.

You also have the option to complete the roster form and print it from the website. It will make it easier for you and for the people who have to transcribe the information to get the paper work ready. Click on the link to take you to our website. http://www.martinezboccefederation.org/RosterFormInfo.html
Scroll down and click on "Online Roster Signup Form"

If you are thinking about starting a NEW team you will have to check in at the Club House on the Saturday after registration day which will be Saturday February 8th @ 9.00am

Bear in mind that the line forms early. We work it on a "First Come First Served" basis.
I have personal experience of this and sometimes the line forms before 6.00am.
I'm not saying that it will happen this time but it may and this is just a heads up on the situation.

As you know, the week nights have been full and only Sunday's were available for new teams in 2013.
Season 2014 could well be the same but sometimes vacancies may occur during the week and if you wish to capitalize on it, the further up the line the better chance you have of getting the slot you require.

Open fee for 2014 is $270 per team. Volo fee for 2014 is $175 Senior fee for 2014 $100

Retirement Solutions

Gene A. Schnabel & Jason Vitucci

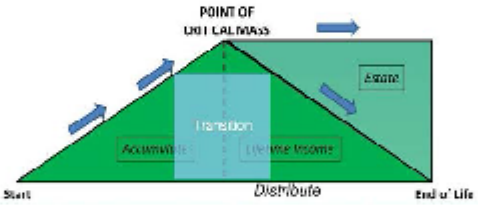
3 Largest Risks of Retirement Transition

At our practice we believe that the 10 years pre retirement and 10 years post retirement are exposed to a unique set of risks, and therefore require a unique set of planning strategies.

The three largest risks a transitioning retiree is exposed to are longevity, behavior, and timing. The statistics on the current age wave are staggering. There is a 50% chance that one person in a 65 year old couple will live to age 92, and a 25% chance they will live to 97. As life expectancy grows, so does the need for a larger nest egg for a longer retirement.

We believe that behavioral risk is heightened as your get closer to needing to use your assets to supplement income. As the markets climb and fall, it can be difficult to stomach the volatility.

If the timing of your planned retirement happens to fall during a period of recession, you need some sort of infrastructure in your plan to guard against this kind of timing. We can help with that.



These three risks are often ignored until just before the move toward retirement. The time to start building a protection infrastructure around your retirement nest egg is much earlier. We welcome the opportunity to meet and discuss your unique situation.

Please call us today for a free, no obligation appointment to discuss your options.

Important Court Etiquettes

1).The Cone Zone.

If a court has a "Cone" placed on it, that court must not be used. It may have been recently groomed, may be reserved for an upcoming event or game or may simply be "soft" and is waiting to dry out. Please respect the "Cone Zone"

2).Grooming.

If you find it necessary to groom the court prior to your match, all activity must be completed 30 minutes before your games commence.
See Rule II (H) of the 2013 rules.

Therefore, if your first game starts at 6.30pm all grooming must end at 6pm. For a 5.00pm start, everything must be completed by 4.30pm.

3). Bouncing of Balls on Concrete Court Surround.

In the past, some members have been seen to "Bounce" the bocce ball on the concrete edge of the court to remove grit and oyster shell. This practice must be discontinued as it not only may weaken the integrity of the ball but also will eventually crack the court's concrete walls, which will lead to costly repairs.

The Board of Directors wishes you a Happy Christmas and a Wonderful New Year

It's a New Year, which means 12 new months to observe some offbeat, obscure and just plain odd holidays. Like these!

January 1st: First Foot Day
A Scottish New Year tradition, the first person to step into someone's home is called the "first-footer" and is thought to represent good fortune entering the household—in the form of gifts including coal, whiskey, cash and/or cheese and bread. Sorry ladies and blond men, in order to be considered lucky the first-footer should always be a dark-haired man.

January 3rd: Fruitcake Toss Day
Although it may sound like a culinary Olympic event, Fruitcake Toss Day just marks the time when it is finally socially acceptable to trash all of the holiday fruitcakes you received. If you choose to turn the event into a throwing contest, make sure to have paper towels handy.

January 4th: World Hypnotism Day
According to the official website, World Hypnotism Day was created to educate the people of the world that hypnotism is more than just staring at a swinging gold watch whilst being told how sleepy you are getting. To further your learning, you can download audio clips from the site or search for events in your area.

January 4th: National Trivia Day

January 7th: National Old Rock Day
Have you thanked a veteran rock today? Though no official creator has stepped forward, paleontologists must be behind this holiday honoring the fossils and rock formations that are as old as time.

January 9th: National Static Electricity Day

Crazy hair image via Shutterstock*

The Board of Directors wishes you a Happy Christmas and a Wonderful New Year

Grab your balloons and sweaters! It's time to build up your static charge and conduct some electrons. This is the perfect holiday to occur in the dead of winter, when the air is extra dry – the optimal conditions for storing up those negative charges that shock you at the most unexpected times.

January 10th: Peculiar People Day

This holiday commemorates the unicorn in all of us. Although there is no official origin story, National Whatever Day theorizes PPD may have spun off from an obscure Christian denomination in England known as "The Peculiar People."

January 14th: National Dress Up Like Your Pet or Dress Up Your Pet Day
There are conflicting reports as to the specifics of this holiday, but January 14th is definitely either a day to make your beloved pet extra fancy or a day to dress up similarly. For the latter, it is unclear whether this means matching outfits or literally donning a full fur suit.

January 16th: National Nothing Day
A non-holiday created in 1972 by journalist Harold Pullman Coffin, National Nothing Day requires you to not observe, celebrate, honor or commemorate anything.. However, for most Americans it is a work holiday, providing the perfect opportunity to at least do absolutely nothing.

January 17th: Kid Inventors Day
The Kid Inventors Day website attributes television, water skis, earmuffs and the Popsicle to the minds of brilliant minors. Technically the man who invented the first working television, Philo Farnsworth, applied for the patent at age 21 in 1927. But, he showed an early design for his TV to his teacher at age 14. The purpose of Kid Inventors Day is to celebrate and encourage the ingenuity of children — so the Farnsworth blueprint counts!

Fun Holiday Fact: the name of the holiday makes the acronym KID.

January 18th: Thesaurus Day
On this day in 1779, British lexicographer Peter Mark Roget was born. He is most famous for publishing The Thesaurus of English Words and Phrases (aka "Roget's Thesaurus") in 1852. This holiday is a day to honor, celebrate, extol, laud, praise, revere or salute his contributions.

January 20th: Penguin Awareness Day
Not to be confused with World Penguin Day on April 25th, this holiday encourages you to cultivate even more knowledge of the Spheniscidae family. For example, there are between 17 and 20 species of penguins in the world. Or were you aware that contrary to popular belief, some penguin species are only monogamous during mating season – not for life? There's so much awareness to go around!

January 22nd: National Answer Your Cat's Questions Day
If animals could talk, what would they say? We may never know the real answer, but January 22nd is a day to remember the thoughts and feelings of your domestic feline. Don't worry if cat whispering isn't your forte. Cat-oriented websites like Cat Channel offer some great icebreakers to get the conversation started. For example, "Are hairballs a common malady? What can my human do to prevent them?"

The Board of Directors wishes you a Happy Christmas and a Wonderful New Year

January 24th: Beer Can Appreciation Day
77 years ago to the day, the first beer was sold in cans. Since then the beer can has become a barbecue staple, a collector's item and a maligned receptacle for some beer snobs. Today, pause before chugging, shotgunning or crushing and take a moment to reflect on what your beer can means to you.

January 25th: National Opposite Day
January 25th is definitely not national opposite day.

January 27th: Thomas Crapper Day
Often incorrectly credited with inventing the toilet, Thomas Crapper was a plumber and businessman who did, in fact, champion the modern wash closet and also invented the ballcock — that floating ball in the body of your toilet. His apropos surname was just a coincidence; the word "crap" already existed in the English language at the time of his birth.

January 28th: National Kazoo Day
Founded by Chaplin Willard Rahn of the Joyful Kazoo Band, National Kazoo Day celebrates 162 years of this plastic instrument. The organization behind the holiday, Kazoo America, hopes to one day make the kazoo "America's official musical instrument." They ask that you please remember the kazoo is definitely NOT related to the Vuvuzela.

January 30th: National Inane Answering Message Day
Officially, this holiday's purpose was to assign a day for people to clean out old and pointless voicemails on their answering machines. However, some people have since interpreted it as a day to leave inane voicemails for others. With the proliferation of text messages and decline of landlines, take the opportunity to observe this holiday now before it becomes as obsolete as home answering machines!
